Privacy Statement

How we use your personal information

The Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Combined Authority (CPCA) is responsible for developing the first Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Local Transport Plan.

Your personal information will be used to identify the need for, and inform our approach to, any changes required in producing the final Local Transport Plan

If you have any questions about how your personal information is being used, please contact the CPCA's Monitoring Officer at:

2 The Incubator, Alconbury Weald Enterprise Campus,
Huntingdon, PE28 4XA

Collecting of your personal information

We will collect your personal information solely where we:

- need to for the purpose of delivering the aforementioned Transport Plan;
- have your consent to do so; and
- have a legal obligation to do so.

How we share your personal information

We are collecting and processing your data as part of the statutory consultation period for the first Cambridge and Peterborough Local Transport Plan. The information received will be used to identify the need for, and inform our approach to, any changes required in producing the final Local Transport Plan. Any personal information provided (age group, gender, health status and postcode) will be used to help us understand the types of people responding to the consultation and the extent to which the responses received are representative of the population of Cambridgeshire and Peterborough. Responses received between 17 June to 27 September in relation to the public consultation, made through post and online questionnaire will be anonymized by the CPCA and shared with our consultants for analysis. No personal information will be transferred to third parties.

How long we will keep your personal information

The CPCA will only retain your personal information for as long as is absolutely necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected.

Your data protection rights

You have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information the CPCA holds about you and to check that the CPCA is lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal information that the CPCA holds about you. This enables any incomplete or inaccurate information the CPCA holds about you to be corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask the CPCA to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for the CPCA continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask the CPCA to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal information where the CPCA is relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask the CPCA to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want the CPCA to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.
- Withdraw your consent at any time.
