Hello email address

Coronavirus (COVID-19) vaccination - NHS

On the 02/02/2022 the NHS is performing selections for coronavirus vaccination on the basis of family genetics and medical history.

The COVID-19 travel certificate has been created in a bid to restore the freedom of travel, which has been put at a halt for over a year now, since the pandemic erupted all over the block.

Through the certificate, the Commission intends to remove travel restrictions as entry bans, quarantine obligation, and testing.

Those holding such a document will be able to travel throughout Europe without the need to quarantine or test for COVID-19

Through the certificate, the Commission intends to remove travel restrictions as entry bans, quarantine obligation, and testing.
