ACCESSIBILITY AND VENUE INFORMATION

We aim to make our activities as welcoming and accessible as possible.

Detailed access information for all activities is on the event page, on the website.

Everyone is welcome

At all our events you can:

- Move around if you need to
- Use quiet fidget toys (e.g. fidget spinner)
- Use ear defenders or weighted blankets
- Stand if you need to (please move to the side or back of the audience)
- If strobe lighting, very loud music or sudden bangs are included this will be noted in the information for the event.
- Our audience seating is created using freestanding chairs. They are flexible and we can accommodate users of wheelchairs, mobility aids and service animals.

For some activities we offer additional accessibility measures. Please look out for the following logos in the brochure.

Relaxed performances

Relaxed performances are safe spaces where special consideration is given to the sensory needs of Neurodiverse / Autistic audience members. Neurotypical audiences are also welcome.

- Bring sensory aids, vocalise and move around during the performance.
- There is a quieter space provided with chairs.
- Photos and a video tour of the venue will be on our website so you can become familiar with the space in advance.
- A staff member who has Autism Awareness Training will be present at the event.
- Overhead lights will be off for daytime activities, this is not possible for evening events.

Touch Tours

If you would benefit from a touch tour before a performance, please contact us when you book your ticket so we can try to arrange this for you. You can bring someone to describe the performance to you by booking a (free) companion ticket.

BSL Signed Performances

These are performances where a BSL (British Sign Language) interpreter is provided and where someone who speaks BSL will be at the event to greet audiences.

Captioned Performances

The words are displayed on a screen, placed near the stage or in the set and can be seen at the same time as they are spoken or sung. Speakers' names, sound effects and offstage noises are also shown.

Hearing Loops

For some activities, hearing loops will be available. Look for (Hearing Loop) underneath the venue information. Please book with your ticket if required.

If you have other access requirements that you would like to check with us before booking, please get in touch with us. Please allow as much notice as possible so we can arrange appropriate services.

SUPPORTED BY

Urban&Civic

Urban&Civic are proud to support The Library Presents programme, and ensure that across the County people can enjoy, share and learn from a great programme of cultural and creative activities. Our libraries are now vibrant community spaces, in the heart of our market towns and cities. In each of the 3 developments we are bringing forward in the county – Waterbeach, Alconbury Weald and Wintringham at St Neots – we will be putting libraries at the heart of the civic centres, to provide the place for support, events and activities, learning and sharing that is so important to people and places. So whether it is poetry, plays, art or music; story telling about the past or creative thinking about the future; we hope everyone finds some great activities to get involved with in their local community and inspiration from the creative talent around us.

Meeting spaces for hire at your local library

Looking for a place to conduct an interview, exhibit artwork or have a meeting with your members? Then see if your library has the space you need.

Cambridgeshire Libraries has a wide range of rooms for hire across the county. We have great facilities available at competitive prices in excellent locations.

All our rooms are fully furnished and come with free WiFi. There are a wide range of add on amenities available in many locations including projectors and smart TVs, as well as access to tea and coffee making facilities.

Find out more by visiting www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk or call on 0345 0455225

Tickets: Pay what you think £2 - £10 (see page 4)

It is 1929. An androgynous figure cuts a haunting shape in the shadows of Oxbridge. Scorned. Refused entry to the library. Why? Woolf demands answers. Why is it fatal for a writer to reflect on their sex? What if Shakespeare had an equally gifted sister? Woolf unflinchingly interrogates the injustice she encounters. A witty, relevant and provocative dramatisation of Virginia Woolf's Room Of One's Own from Emul8 Theatre.

Histon Library - Friday 18 November 7.30pm (Doors open 7.10pm)

Detailed access information is available on www.library.live
