

Plan ahead for the 2023 Tour of Cambridgeshire weekend.

(Whittlesey not directly affected, many visit Pondersbridge to view cyclists and race.)

The very last Tour of Cambridgeshire

The Tour of Cambridgeshire is Britain's biggest cycling festival and returns on the weekend of June 3rd and 4th 2023.

Over the weekend up to 10,000 riders and spectator will visit the event site at the East of England Showground and riders will be out on Cambridgeshire's roads. This will necessitate road closures throughout the north-west of the county. Please read the information below for more details.

Each rider has their own story and reason for riding, many will be raising money for charity, for some it will be the toughest physical challenge of their lives. But all will welcome your support and applause and they pass your community.

Saturday - 3 June 2023

With riders tackling a short, 16.4-mile course as either individuals or in teams of four, road closures on the opening day of rides on the Tour of Cambridgeshire are limited to a very small area. However, they will be all day, beginning at 9am, and reopening at 8pm.

The communities affected are Alwalton, Chesterton, Morborne, Folksworth and Washingley.

Sunday 4th June 2023

The Tour of Cambridgeshire is unique among cycling events in the United Kingdom. Sunday's ride will see riders covering up to 100 miles, with many hoping to qualify for the amateur World Championships taking place in Italy this September.

As on Saturday some roads through Alwalton, Chesterton, Morborne, Folksworth and Washingley will be closed between 9am and 8pm.

Roads in other communities will be affected for varying amounts of time. Other than those above, villages to the west of the A1(M) will be restricted for the least time, with those further east closed for longer.

For more detail of how your community will be affected please see the map.
