Church

THIS WEEK

Hello everyone,

Please find below details of fellowship, worship and events this week and beyond.

This Sunday at the Holy Communion, Morning and Evening Praise services you'll be exploring together the Parable of the Sewer from Matthew 13 - a wonderful story of the generosity of God, liberally sharing His word of love and invitation with all humanity.

May your time together be a blessing, and may the love songs and hymns you sing to and about God be joy for Him to hear!

If you're planning on coming along to the Pathway Picnic (all are welcome!) tomorrow (Friday,) please be assured that if the weather ain't great, we'll go indoors either using St. Mary's after Pre-School Praise, or the vicarage.

Have a lovely week!

God bless,
Lloyd.

Some of us will be reading a book over the summer and we'd love for you to join us!

The Book is called 'Gentle and Lowly: The Heart of Christ for Sinners and Sufferers'.

Christians know what Jesus Christ has done—but who is he? What is his deepest heart for his people, weary and faltering on their journey toward heaven? Jesus said he is “gentle and lowly in heart.” This book reflects on these words, opening up a neglected yet central truth about who he is for sinners and sufferers today.

This book can be bought through most online bookshops and some of us will be meeting up at the George in Whittlesey to have a chat about what we've been reading on the following Tuesdays: 25th July, 8th August, 22nd August and 5th September; meeting at 7:30pm.

At the first session on the 25th July, we'll be discussing chapters 1 to 5, but please do join us even if you haven't got that far in the book.
