

Hello everyone,

May you meet powerfully with God as you join together for worship this Sunday; at the 'traditional' services you'll be continuing with Matthew 13's parables - this week the wheat and weeds.

Congratulations to those who spotted my mistake last week - it was of course meant to be "Parable of the Sower", not "Parable of the Sewer!"

For those joining us tomorrow (Fri 21 July) for the picnic, apologies but the wrong time was published last week. It is at 12:30, after Pre-school Praise. As we found out last week, wet weather provisions can be made.

God bless,
Lloyd.

'The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field...'

Some of us will be reading a book over the summer and we'd love for you to join us!

The Book is called 'Gentle and Lowly: The Heart of Christ for Sinners and Sufferers'.

Christians know what Jesus Christ has done—but who is he? What is his deepest heart for his people, weary and faltering on their journey toward heaven? Jesus said he is “gentle and lowly in heart.” This book reflects on these words, opening up a neglected yet central truth about who he is for sinners and sufferers today.

This book can be bought through most online bookshops and some of us will be meeting up at the George in Whittlesey to have a chat about what we've been reading on the following Tuesdays: 25th July, 8th August, 22nd August and 5th September; meeting at 7:30pm.

At the first session on the 25th July, we'll be discussing chapters 1 to 5, but please do join us even if you haven't got that far in the book.
