October 2023

This month:

- September Highlights
- Morrow Street Pride Coffee Morning
- Work Party Schedule
- Useful Contacts

September was a busy month. Congratulations to Chatteris In Bloom and Benwick In Bloom on their Anglia In Bloom awards, receiving a Gold & Silver Gilt respectively.

October looks set to be just as busy and I look forward to seeing you at the Celebration Evening.

For those of you who take part in Halloween activities, I hope you have a spooktacular time.

September Highlights

Equipment was lent to members of staff from Smurfit Kappa in March so they could hold a litter pick for World Clean Up day.

The Friends of March Railway Station, Friends of Ring's End Nature Reserve, Friends of Station Road Cemetery March, Friends of Wisbech General Cemetery & Friends of Octagon Graveyard Wisbech all held events to coincide with Heritage Open Days, a series of events co-ordinated by the National Trust, to showcase the history and culture people can find on their doorstep as well as highlighting the types of activities that individuals can get involved with.
