THE CITIZENS ADVICE SERVICE:

Independent

We are able to offer independent advice to all enquirers and take up any issue on behalf of individuals or groups.

Impartial

We are open to everybody for advice regardless of race, religion, politics or sexual orientation.

Confidential

Nothing learned by the Citizens Advice service from a client will be passed on to anyone outside the service.

Free

Clients are not expected to pay for any part of the service, although donations are always welcome.

Ask us!

The Citizens Advice service can give you advice and information on a wide range of subjects including:

- Debt
- Benefits
- Employment Issues
- Discrimination Issues
- Family/Relationship Issues
- Housing

Together we can work to sort out your debt worries and help you to claim all the benefits you are entitled to.

We can advise you on any employment problems.

We can also provide practical help with filling out forms, writing letters and contacting other agencies on your behalf.

Our advice is given professionally by fully-trained volunteers and paid staff.
