

BUSFEST IS ALIVE in Whittlesey

We at More Muzic Radio were disappointed to learn about the cancellation of the beloved Whittlesey Bus Festival this year.

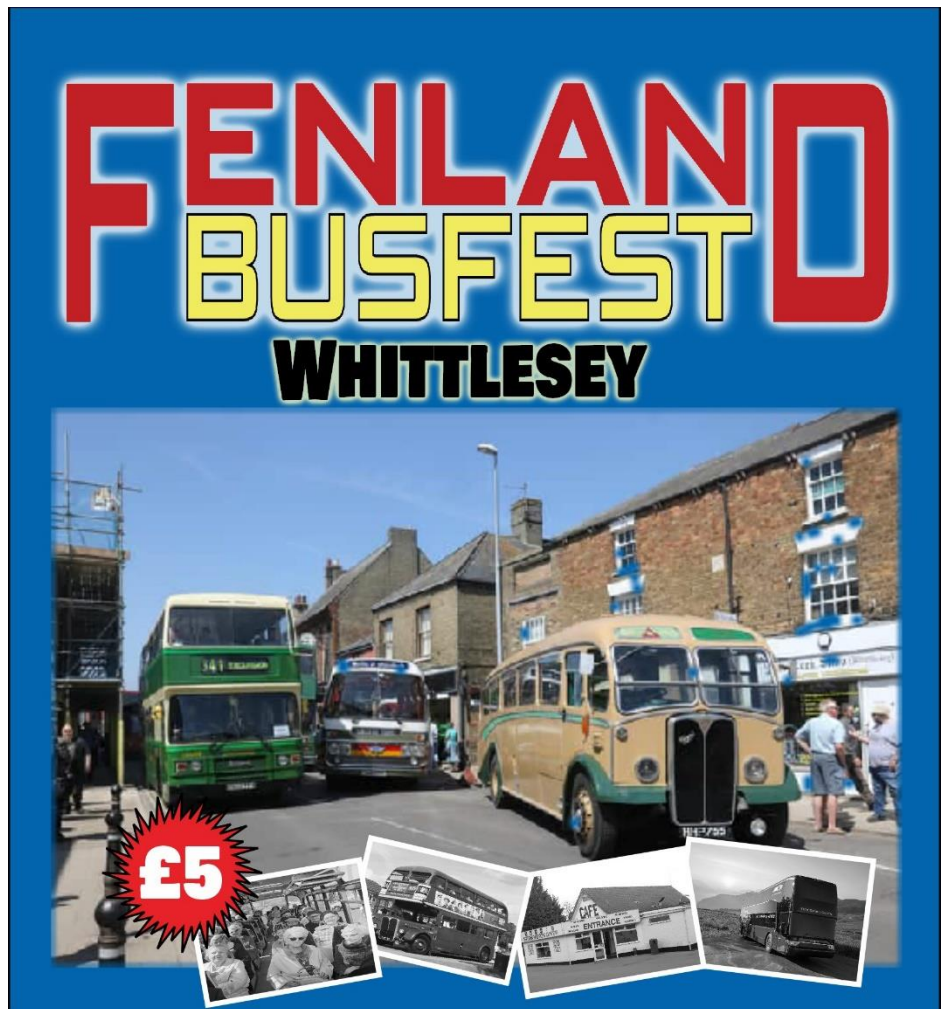

However, we're thrilled to announce some exciting news! In line with our "Community Promise," More Muzic Radio is proud to be a part of bringing back the festival as the Fenland Busfest in 2025!

A dedicated team has been formed, combining experienced members from the original team with fresh faces and new ideas. This ensures the festival's legacy continues for years to come.

Following a productive meeting brimming with promising ideas, we're happy to announce the Fenland Busfest will take place on Sunday, June 8th, 2025.

The Busfest is a fantastic event that attracts visitors to Whittlesey, boosting our local businesses like shops and pubs.

Stay tuned for the launch of a brand-new website! We'll be sharing regular updates about the festival, including exciting new additions planned for 2025.
