THIS WEEK

Dear all,

I hope you've all had a good week. We have begun to catch something of a glimpse of the summer sunshine and with summer just around the corner we are planning to resume our picnics on the churchyard in August and we're hoping to read a book together over the summer months; more details about these to follow in the coming weeks. For details on what's happening this week and later this month, please read on....

God bless,

Emily

For your PRAYERS this week:

For our Churchwardens - who were all admitted to office last week.

For our acting Bishop, Dagmar, our Archdeacons and those appointed with the task of finding the next Bishop of Ely.

For those are unwell at this time and in need of healing, including:

Ann Chrisp • Brenda Cooper • Daphne Kisby • Marilyn Gregory •
Allan Ollenbittle • Joyce Rogers

If you would like to add a name to the prayer list for healing, please let us know. People with ongoing need of healing remain in our prayers even if their names no longer appear here.

We remember those who have recently died and pray for their family and friends at this difficult time, including:

Sylvia Becker • Irene Clow • Nikki Jordan • Wayne Moore •
Terence Palmer

The General Election will be a moment for the nation to ask important questions about the future. Pray Your Part is an invitation from the bishops of the Church of England to encourage prayer and participation in the life of our nation and communities, both as voters and as citizens.

This 21-day journey of prayer and reflection (from Friday, 14 June until Election Day on 4 July) is designed for use in the run-up to the UK General Election. Each day explores a different theme, with a short Bible reading, reflection and prayer for a different aspect of our common life. You can sign up for daily election reflections from the Church of England HERE.
