

Dear all,

It is Half Term this week and so Trinity Tots and Alpha will both be taking a break - both are due to resume as normal from next Monday (24th).

As we look forward, you might like to start thinking about Lent - please read on for details of a few resources that could be a blessing to you this coming season.

God bless,
Emily

"But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died": 1 Corinthians 15:20

LENT begins on the 5th March. There will be two services on Ash
Wednesday to mark the beginning of Lent:

9:15am - Holy Communion service at Holy Trinity, Coates

7:30pm - Worship Wednesday at St Mary's, Whittlesey

Lent is traditionally a time of spiritual devotion in preparation for the Easter celebration. There are a few resources which you might like to follow this Lenten season:

The Church of England has produced a series of daily reflections (a general series and then a series for families) called 'Living Hope'. These can be accessed via the app (downloadable from wherever you usually get your apps) or you can purchase the book.

The Methodist Church have produced a series of videos - sent to your inbox each day - for this Lent season and there is a real variety. Including a recipe video and craft video each week, there is also Bible study reflections and musical reflections. You can sign up for these HERE.

DO YOU FEEL CALLED TO SERVE?

Much of our mission and ministry as a church is supported by volunteers. We are currently looking for a:

TEAM TREASURER - to manage the Joint Council bank account which ensures that minister payments, our wedding/funeral organists and vergers etc are paid. A full role description can be found HERE.

ST MARY'S PCC TREASURER - to manage St Mary's church accounts and work alongside the PCC in the financial planning and administration of those finances.

SAFER RECRUITMENT CO-ORDINATOR - following Lloyd and Emily's departure in the Spring, we will be looking for someone to co-ordinate the safer recruitment of volunteers across the Benefice. This is an administrative role. Please let us know by the 24th February if this could be you.

Flourishing?

What does it mean for our communities to flourish and thrive? Why does aspiration matter? How might life in all its fullness be found & expressed by the churches especially in urban estates and disadvantaged areas of Ely Diocese?

Wednesday
9 April

Talks and discussions, including contributions from:

- Alex Rodmell, Christians against poverty
- Steve Clay (Cambridge City foodbank)
- Kristian Hewett, Chaplain, Cambridge Churches Homeless Project

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.
