Free event for over 60s

People aged over 60 and those with an interest in opportunities, services and support for over 60s are invited to a free event.

The latest Fenland District Council Golden Age event will, as always, be free to attend, include information stands to stroll around, free refreshments and a goodie bag to take home.

Cllr Sam Clark, Golden Age team leader, said: "Whether you've been to Golden Age events before or this would be your first one, there's sure to be information available that's new to you."

"A wide range of organisations attend to chat with visitors and tell them about things they might be missing out on or that can make their lives better."

Golden Age stallholders can include those involved with supporting independent living, wellbeing, finances, law, carers, health, home security, transport, social and volunteering opportunities.

The next Golden Age event is on Friday, March 6, 10am to 1pm, in Chatteris, at King Edward Community Centre, 3 King Edward Road, PE16 6NG.
