Christmas is coming to Wisbech

Wisbech town centre will be awash with festive cheer as the free-to-attend Fenland Four Seasons Christmas Fayre returns on Sunday, December 13, 10am to 3pm.

There'll be stalls, fresh food, music (including a brass band) and endless entertainment. See Santa and several Christmas characters, and enjoy free children's activities.

Cllr Chris Seaton, of Fenland District Council, said: "Wisbech Christmas Fayre is a wonderful annual opportunity for the community to come together and enjoy a day packed with festive sights, smells and magic. Get it in the diary now and we look forward to seeing you there!"

Entertainment and attractions will spread through the town centre. Attractions include, at:

- Wisbech Library, Ely Place — free family activities
- Wisbech and Fenland Museum, Museum Square — Victorian food demonstrations and tasting
- Museum Square, Santa's sleigh, courtesy of Friends of Wisbech Lions
- Market Street, free miniature train rides
- Market Place, children's rides, including some that are subsidised
- Horsefair Shopping Centre, Churchill Road — Cambridge Science running family activities
- Royal British Legion Hub, York Row — indoor craft fayre.

Walking, cycling or use of public transport to get to the event is encouraged for those who can. Town centre road closures and parking restrictions will be in place on the day. Free town centre parking is available at Fenland District Council's Chapel Road (PE13 1RG), Somers Road (PE13 1JF) and Church Terrace (PE13 1BL). Horsefair Shopping Centre car park will also be free for the day, remember to pick up a ticket as usual.

Catering stalls are already booked and other pitches are selling fast. To secure one, visit: www.fenland.gov.uk/events

Wisbech Christmas Fayre is a Fenland Four Seasons event supported by a committee of dedicated volunteers and Fenland District Council, Wisbech Town Council, Wisbech Horsefair Shopping Centre, Wisbech Library, Wisbech and Fenland Museum, Wisbech Projects and Wisbech Lions, with contributions from many more.

A week before Wisbech Christmas Fayre, March Christmas Market will be held. March Christmas Market takes place 10am to 3pm, Sunday, December 7.
